

ENVS Bachelor of Arts (BA) Major Requirements
Effective Fall 2020

FOUNDATION COURSES: All required

ENVS 130*: Environmental Sciences
 ENVS 131: Intro to ENVS Field Studies
 ENVS 390: Seminar in Environmental Issues

*ENVS 120 or ENVS 140 may be substituted for ENVS 130
 ENVS OX 131 fulfills the requirement of both ENVS 130 and ENVS 131

INTERMEDIATE BREADTH REQUIREMENTS: Four courses, one from each area

Methods	Ecology, Conservation, and Health	Earth and Atmospheric Sciences	Social Science and Policy
(pre-requisite for all: QTM 100) ENVS 250: Fundamentals of Cartography & GIS ENVS 260: Quantitative Methods in ENVS ENVS 270: Environmental Data Science	ENVS 232: Fundamentals of Ecology w/lab ENVS 240: Ecosystem Ecology ENVS/BIOL 247: Ecology	ENVS 222: Evolution of the Earth w/lab ENVS 229: Atmospheric Science w/lab ENVS 230: Introductory Geoscience w/lab ENVS 235: Environmental Geology ENVS 239: Physical Oceanography	ENVS 224: Economy and the Environment ENVS 225: Institutions and the Environment ENVS/POLS 227: Environmental Policy

UPPER LEVEL ELECTIVE COURSES

Choose any 4 departmental courses that are at least three credit hours. All courses must be 200 level or above, with at least two courses being 300 level or above. Study abroad or 3-credit ENVS 399 courses may count with prior approval.

INDEPENDENT STUDY REQUIREMENT: Choose one, must be at least 4 credit hours

ENVS 491: Service Learning in ENVS
 ENVS 494: Individual Research
 ENVS 495: Honors Research
 ENVS 497: Undergraduate Internship
 ENVS 498: Individual Directed Reading
 ENVS 499: Advanced Independent Research

CAPSTONE REQUIREMENT (Taken in final semester)

ENVS 490: ENVS Senior Capstone Portfolio

Lab/field requirement: 2 courses from Intermediate Breadth and/or Elective Categories must be field and/or lab courses

- Beginning in Fall 2020, all majors will be required to confer with their ENVS advisor prior to registering for the next semester